2002

There were times when we thought we wouldn't,
But we finally got it done;
It took a lot of effort,
But we had a lot of fun.

In our Annual we share with you a few of our happy, never-to-be-forgotten days spent at Corinth-Holders High School.

It contains:

- Dedication
- Administration
- Memorial
- Classes
- Organizations
- Snapshots

DEDICATION

As a token of love, respect, and esteem, we the Senior Class of 1955, dedicate this volume of the Corinthian to you, Mrs. Bailey.

We will always remember your untiring efforts and your loyal service to the school as an excellent dietitian.

Administration

We wish to extend our sincere appreciation to Mr. E. S. Simpson, our County Superintendent, for the many services he has rendered to us.

To our school committee goes our deepest appreciation for the many fine services they have rendered to our school. They are: Mrs. Billy Moore, Mr. Obie Hinton, Mr. Horvey Price, chairman; Mr. Rupert Harris, and Mr. Esker Corbett, Sr.

OUR PRINCIPAL

Our principal, Mr. Freeman, has proven a loyal friend to students, faculty and patrons alike. The guidance which he gives willingly and patiently reflects his interest in the development of the best in individuals. His high ideals and daily examples of upright living are a constant inspiration to those about him.

HISTORY

About twelve years ago a group of excited youngsters entered school for the first time. We had one task to do, open the closed doors of education. Now this same group, the Senior Class of 'Fifty-Five, has another door to open—the door of Life.

Our days in grammar school passed by very rapidly, with Christmas parties and picnics being the main highlights.

In 1951, we entered high school as green Freshmen. There were many hardships, but with the help of our leaders, Miss Yvonne Waters and Mr. Charles Carroll, we became Sophomores.

Mr. Carroll was again one of our guides in our second year of high school. Along with him had Mrs. Garner. With their guidance we trudged along and soon became "Juniors."

As "Juniors" we had Mr. and Mrs. Heath to lead us. By this time we were acquiring a few more responsibilities.

We enjoyed presenting our class play, "Hillbilly Courtship." We entered a magazine campaign but were defeated by the seniors. Then came the one event to which we had looked forward for so long, the Junior-Senior Banquet. We put on our formals and journeyed to Raleigh for a lovely evening at the S & W Cafeteria. That was a memorable date for all of us.

We finally became Seniors—the distinctive title of which we had been dreaming for eleven long years. With the leadership and guidance of Mrs. Vann and Mrs. Simmons, we packed many happy events into these nine short months. Some of them were: publishing an annual, selecting and receiving our class rings, presenting a class play, selecting invitations and calling cards, attending a Junior-Senior Banquet, attending several class parties, sponsoring a barbecue supper, preparing for graduation, and finally making plans for a trip to Washington, marking the end of twelve happy years together.

As we go out to take our places in the world, we carry with us many happy memories of our days here at Corinth-Holders High School. We hope to prove ourselves worthy as we add our footprints to the sands of time.

JANIE WILDER, Class Historian

CLASS POEM

Farewell, farewell, dear Corinth High
The school we love so true.
The time has come for us to part
And start our life a-new.

To teachers kind, we say good-bye.
As we journey on our way,
We'll never forget the helping hand
They so gladly gave us day by day.

These halls will echo with our laughter
And often with our tears.
In every life some rain must fall,
Not much these twelve short years.

What we are to be, we are now becoming,
It's just a motto, but so true.
Let's try to be useful men and women,
And let mistakes be small and few.

Farewell, farewell, dear Corinth High,
May the good Lord bless and keep thee
For ever more the same fine school
You have been to my friends and me.

JEAN DIXON, Class Poet

CLASS SONG

Dear friends the time has come when we must part,
We'll always be together in our hearts.
Where we have had our work and had our play,
And found our joys and sorrows everyday.

Our teachers gave us all their help and love,
And lifted lagging spirits up above.
We love, admire them, and we hope they'll stay
By Corinth High, Dear Corinth High.

Let's pledge each other that we'll take our stand,
On what is worthy in our native land,
And keep our courage high and honor bright,
Keeping our visions always toward the light.

Hearing God's message while the echo rings,
Its mighty music that our memory brings,
Of days gone by and days that always lie
Within our hearts, Dear Corinth High!

WILLIE MAE JOHNSON, Class Song Writer

In Memorial

On May 29, 1953, death claimed a dear member of our class. To us, this was a great loss, but we rest assured that our loss was God's gain. Yes, he is gone in body, but the sweet memory of him dwells in each of our hearts.

Joe was born on October 15, 1935. He lived a Christian life and was well-liked by everyone who came in contact with him.

It is with deepest feeling that we, the Seniors of 1955, present this page of our Corinthian in honor and memory of Joseph Daniel Creech.

CLASS PROPHECY

Yes, it seems only yesterday that we were in school but no, it can't be. Just take a glimpse of the many things that have taken place since that 1955 graduating class left Corinth-Holders.

Charles Ray Hinton is now coaching the Army basketball team, and on the sidelines he is raising a complete team of his own.

Glendle Faye Johnson and Shirley Skinner mastered shorthand in 1955, and they are now stenographers for a big firm out in California.

Larry Ray Andrews chose the Navy. He sails and sails. You will see him in the news-reel soon for outstanding bravery at Hatteras.

Audrey Price continued her education and was selected as private secretary to Ben Garner, owner of Garner Cadillac Company of Raleigh, N. C.

Many people thought Willie Mae Johnson would be an English and French teacher, but ah! Willie is now in Hollywood playing with some French actor.

It isn't surprising at all that Jean Bailey, Peggy Boughman, Peggy Murphy, Violet Wise, and Ann Medlin chose to be housewives for their successful husbands.

Randy Creech wandered out to Texas, where he's owner of a big ranch on which saddle horses are raised.

To our honor, we have Herman Barrow, Archie Cooke, Larry Castleberry, and Lawrence Ellis playing with the "New York Yankees."

Due to the retirement of two high school teachers at Corinth, we have Rebecca Wise, teaching Home Economics, and Linda Perry teaching Social Studies and coaching the basketball team.

There's Jean Dixon who has just gotten married and is a well known society reporter for a New York paper, of which Glenda Brown is editor.

Hilda Creech was married after graduation and has settled down in the Earpsboro community.

Nelson O'Neal owns and operates the greatest and latest "Fashions for men and women" department store in New York City. Norma Thompson, now Nelson's assistant, continually brings the business up the scale by making such irresistible displays for the shop exhibits.

Many times we are disappointed in the achievements of our classmates, but not Donald Glenn Weathers. He's a doctor at Johnston Memorial Hospital.

Bobby Carter, always known for his music, is now a disk jockey. Along with him is Ray Hinnant.

Jimmie Wilder, James Ivey Narron, and Earl Temple became dissatisfied with the marriage laws of the U. S., so they left to collect a harem.

For the Highway Patrol we rendered girls and boys. There are Betty Jo Johnson, Pansy Garner, and Janie Wilder as secretaries. We also have Charles Narron and Charles Price as Highway Patrolmen.

Riding out in the country, you will find, Philip Barnes, Earley Wilder, and Roy Lee Richardson successful farmers with helpful wives.

At the "Willis Co." owned by Larry Harding, there are two successful bookkeepers, Betsy Ross Wall and Loy Sanderford. Jimmy Whitley and Bobby Johnson liked the Chevrolets so well they own the "Chevrolet Co." in Raleigh. They have as their Secretary, Della Mae Hinton.

Ray Harris has climbed to the top of the ladder as mathematics instructor at State College.

Franceline Hinton is doing fine. She continued her education and is now secretary of a great movie producer in Hollywood.

Fannie Sue Batten and Mary Rose Dupree are found doing successful work with the Revenue Department in Raleigh.
